Explanation and Rationale

The proposed BSA ANS directs all funds allocated for "Great Streets" within the budgets of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development and the District Department of Transportation to be used to support the corridor revitalization programs only in designated Retail Priority Areas, consequently leaving the Nannie Helen Burroughs Great Streets corridor, which does not have an established Retail Priority Area, as the only Great Street unable to receive any Great Streets funding. This amendment creates a Nannie Helen Burroughs Great Streets Neighborhood Retail Priority Area so that the Nannie Helen Burroughs Great Streets corridor can continue to be eligible for Great Streets funding.
